

Forgotten in a Trunk

This beautiful quilt is a unique version of a Reel pattern. Many have been seen with a motif coming from each corner. The 16 motifs radiating out from each block are a pattern that has not yet been found in another quilt and may very well be original to this one.

The fabrics in this quilt date it to the 1870s. It was made by a member of the Maury Family.

Have you seen a quilt block like this one???
